REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art fails to disclose a cell phone connected to the Internet where the cell phone will send information regarding the incoming call to a specified mail address when the incoming call is unanswered; nor does the prior art disclose a timer that will send out to the Internet images and audio during every specific interval; nor does the prior art teach a cell phone connected to the Internet that converts text information to voice data. No obvious combination of references would teach one having ordinary skill in the art to make and use applicant's apparatus as claimed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Creighton H Smith whose telephone number is 308-2488. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F.
